Dear Sean,

We would like to extend an invitation to apply for The Heritage Foundation's Edwin J. Feulner and Paul M. Weyrich Fellowship. Our most advanced program, this rigorous fellowship is designed to empower congressional staffers with the most relevant and comprehensive operational education available on the U.S. Congress and the entities that influence the institution. These bi-cameral fellows will acquire advanced skills on legislating in both chambers, learn oversight and leadership techniques, and establish valuable connections in Congress and the conservative movement.

The program will run from March to July. Fellows will meet for one hour lunch sessions on Tuesdays (12:30-1:30pm). Alongside these sessions, fellows will be invited to alternate forms of programming including occasional dinners which will feature prominent thought leaders among the conservative movement. The program also features an educational two day retreat at the Inn at Perry Cabin in St. Michael's, Maryland (March 23 & 24).

The Feulner and Weyrich Fellowship is a serious commitment that we are asking House and Senate staffers to make for the next 5 months. However, we strongly believe this program will enhance your current job performance, while providing you with extremely valuable and enlightening sessions. To ensure the integrity of the program, the fellowship requires attendance at 80% of the sessions. To apply for the program, please fill out the form here.

The program will begin with an opening dinner featuring Former Senator Jim DeMint discussing the importance of such a program and all you may hope to gain through your participation. The dinner will take place Thursday, March 2, from 6:00-8:00 at The Heritage Foundation, 214 Massachusetts Avenue, NE.

If you have any questions please feel free to call or email me; I hope to see you then.

Sincerely,

Thomas Binion

Explain how this trip is specifically connected to the traveler's official or representational duties:

I am participating in an educational fellowship that is sponsored by the Heritage Foundation. As part of the fellowship the Heritage Foundation is hosting a two day educational retreat that provides a series of sessions on the structure of government as the Founders intended, a review of the current authority of other branches of government, and a discussion on what this means for the legislative branch and conservative ideals. As a legislative staffer for Senator Ted Cruz, this educational retreat will provide an opportunity to learn more about the legislative process, Senate procedure and consider legislative priorities of the new administration that might be coming before Congress. Gaining a better understanding of Senate procedure should allow me to become a more effective legislative staffer in the Senate. This retreat should also better equip me to analyze legislative issues that may come before the Senate Commerce Committee and Senator Cruz.
